South Melbourne Nervous To-day

FOOTSCRAY City supporters will have strong reinforcements supplied by South Melbourne United to-day.

United's contingent will be fervently urging City to defeat Hellenic, and thus do for South Melbourne what it couldn't quite do for itself — make its promotional aspirations secure from Hellenic's successful and threatening late run.

Footscray City is in the unenviable spot in the middle.

GEORGE CROSS IN TOP LEAGUE

Hellenic Likely Running Mate

GEORGE Cross took Second Division premiership honours and won its second bite at the First Division cherry when it defeated Richmond 3-1 last Saturday. Hellenic and South Melbourne United are joint aspirants for the remaining chance of promotion, and this will be settled in Hellenic's last match to-day.

Unless Footscray City turns on another shocker — it trounced Yalourn 5-2 last Saturday — Hellenic should win by the two-goal margin required to take the second promotional berth from South Melbourne.

If the Greek club succeeds, United must bear the chagrin of being pipped by the tiny goal percentage difference of half of one per cent.

Whether relegation is rescinded this year or not, Footscray City will undoubtedly fight for the possibility of finishing third instead of second from the bottom, and despite home-ground advantage, Hellenic must turn on the type of game it played against George Cross two weeks ago to ensure the necessary clear-cut win.

George Cross made the First Division for season 1955, but wasn't sufficiently matured for top League company that year, and finished last to return to the Second Division in 1956. It could be a different story in 1958 if suitable recruits are forthcoming.

LEAGUE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE.

At a meeting of the League Management Committee held on Thursday, August 29, 1957, the Committee resolved that:

1. The Third Division match, VICTORIAN COLTS v. MACCABI, played on August 17, 1957, shall be re-played as the official referee did not observe the rules of the game, which state that short time can only be played by informing and receiving mutual agreement from the competing teams prior to the kick-off.

2. The Metropolitan North match, BAYSWATER v. HEIDELBERG, played on June 29, 1957, shall be re-played due to incompetent and biased refereeing which occurred in the absence of the official referee from the Victorian Referees' Association.

3. A protest from the Geelong S.C. on the match, J.U.S.T. v. GEELONG, played on August 17, 1957, was not upheld.

CAN J.U.S.T. WIN THE DOCKERTY CUP?

Old Cup Feuds on Again To-day

Winners Hard to Pick

TO-DAY's Dockerty Cup quarter-finals offer fans an exciting choice of ties, each of which would be well worth seeing — it's a pity we can't be in four places at once.

POLONIA v. HAKOAH.

Polonia is drawn to meet Hakoah at Olympic Park, and it would not be surprising if these evenly matched rivals are booked for a re-play after extra time. They met at soccer headquarters two weeks ago in a League match, and although Polonia won 2-0, it was with the aid of two penalty goals awarded for ball-handling infringements. The match could easily have been a 0-0 draw, truly indicative of the equality of the two teams.

Polonia has reached the peak of form at the right time. Its record of seven wins and a draw in its last nine matches, capped by a 5-2 win over J.U.S.T. last week, shows that Hakoah will have to be at its very top to win to-day.

WILHELMINA v. J.U.S.T.

Although most fans think that Wilhelmina has done reasonably well for its first season in the First Division, the club itself is disappointed with its League showing, and can be expected to go all out for the Cup in an effort to redeem itself.

The Dutchmen were unlucky to draw J.U.S.T. at this stage — the Sun Cup holders and League champions are intent on scoring the 1957 treble. Naturally the match at Hawthorn can be expected to produce typical Cup fireworks.

SUNSHINE CITY v. JUVENTUS.

Although finishing low in the Second Division, Sunshine City has acquired a habit of tossing First Division Cup visitors to Sunshine, and hope to play "spider" to the Juventus "fly" to-day. However, Juventus showed good form last week, despite dropping a point to Geelong, and the Italians should go on to the semi-finals.

BOX HILL v. MORELAND.

Moreland has defeated Box Hill twice this season, including a 5-1 at Box Hill.

While we don't expect Moreland to win by that margin to-day, the League runner-up should emerge from the game as a Cup semi-finalist.

England Defeats Greece in World Cup Thriller

NEARLY 4000 fans were greatly entertained by the World Cup thriller at Olympic Park last Sunday when England defeated Greece 4-3.

The fast, even first half was whistled off with the score 2-all. In the second period, England took the lead when Hodgson netted a terrific 30-yard free kick, but Karayannis equalled shortly afterwards with a neat header.

Both teams were tiring in the soft going, when Sutherland scored the winning goal for England from a scramble in the penalty area.

POLAND DRAWN AGAIN.

In the earlier match, Poland was once again involved in a draw, finishing 2-all with Latvia after extra time, after being 1-1 at full time.

This game proved that Latvia's defeat of Czechoslovakia was not a fluke.

Man on the High Bar

Williamson, of Brighton, appears to be doing gymnastics on the high bar after an attack on his goal by Moreland's Oxtan last week at Dendy Reserve.

THIRD DIVISION.

Shock Win Over Frankston by Sunshine United

FRANKSTON's excellent chance of making the top four were lessened last week when it was beaten 3-1 in a surprise win by Sunshine United.

F.N.D. gave Hayduk a fright, too, when it took a point from its formidable opponent with a 1-1 draw.

Maccabi, taking the field with no less than six reserve players, did well to hold Coburg down to a modest 2-1 win.

Victorian Colts had a bad day against Yarra Park, keeper Belli having one of those days and allowing a couple of lobbs to get by. Only raw determination kept the Colts in it to draw 3-all.

Colts dropped two points, possibly only temporarily, when League Management ordered a replay of their recent game against Maccabi, which they had won 3-1. This will explain the alteration to the ladder.

Dandenong won handily against Brunswick, and, together with other leaders, Yarra Park and Coburg, should win again to-day.

The winner of the vital match, Colts v. Hayduk, is hard to forecast.

Metropolitan South.

It Simply Rained Goals at Pascoe Vale

Portland Takes Double in West

PORTLAND won both the League premiership and the Cup in the competitions of the Western District Association.

Port Fairy, too, won a double of a sort, being runner-up in both competitions.

The League ladder was finalised as follows:

Team.	P	W	L	D	F	A	P
Portland ..	8	7	1	0	41	14	14
Port Fairy ..	8	5	3	0	34	17	10
Warr'bool ..	8	4	4	0	25	17	8
Terang ..	8	4	4	0	19	22	8
Mortlake ..	8	0	8	0	11	60	0

George Cross Ball Tonight

THE George Cross Annual National Ball will be held at the North Melbourne Town Hall to-night, and, since George Cross has plenty to celebrate, it should be quite a whing-ding.

The occasion will also be used to make club presentations to the players — best and fairest, and others.

MELBOURNE's bag of 17 goals against Pascoe Vale last week gave the Hungarians a season total of 143, or just on eight goals per match. There is little reason to believe that the club will not do almost as well in the Third Division next year.

Croatia settled the runner-up question by defeating Police 3-0, and nobody would be surprised to see this club do well in the Third Division also, if changes permitted its promotion.

Ferntree Gully have had a good season, but must be regretting its mid-year lapse, which has proved very costly. The Dutchmen from the Gully will take a lot of beating next year.

CAN J.U.S.T. WIN THE DOCKERTY CUP?

SOUTH AUSTRALIAN STATE TEAM GOOD

... Says DON SUTHERLAND

IN view of the possibility of a Victorian visit to South Australia soon, some comments on what our team can expect to meet in the way of opposition may be of interest.

One of the enthusiastic crowd of over 7000, I saw the South Australian side, playing as a truly first-class combination, hold an early 2-0 lead, and take it later to 4-2, over the touring Hong Kong side. It was only through a brilliant, all-out rally that the skilful Chinese won through to a 4-4 draw late in the game.

The visiting captain, Ko Po Keung, commented afterwards that the South Australian State team was the equal of any side he had encountered on the tour.

In my opinion, the South Australian strength revolves around Test players, Mather, centre-half; Pagani, left full-back; and 'keeper McCabe — plus two of the best wing-halves I have seen for ages — Chiappin and Jaksa.

A clash between this speedy defence and Victoria's high-calibre forward line would be worth going a long way to see.

The South Australian forward line is inspired by the brilliantly deceptive football of the ponderous Arangilovic, aptly named "King Kong" locally because of his bulk.

South Australia's lone Olympic representative, left-winger Alex Beattie, constantly interchanges with his inside forwards, and, in the match against China, scored three excellent goals from the centre-forward position.

The result of a match. South Australia v. Victoria, is by no means a foregone conclusion.

To the Editor

Dear Sir,—In my opinion, present League arrangements are not satisfactory. I think each Division should consist of 12 teams.

The World Cup, creating long-forgotten national rivalries and sometimes something worse, should be scrapped in the interests of speedier assimilation and adaption in this country. The Dockerty Cup competition could then be played on Sundays.

What do others think about this suggestion?—Yours, etc.,

Macleod.

"ONLOOKER."

METROPOLITAN NORTH.

Lions Land Second Place

LIONS' 2-1 win over University last week, and the fact that on form they must be considered home and hosed against C.F.C. to-day, make them certain occupants of the runner-up position.

Unless C.F.C. pull off a shocker, the re-play of the BAYSWATER-HEIDELBERG match (see V.A.S.F.A. Bulletin) will not have any effect on the final positions of the two leaders.

St. Albans was the disappointment of the year, fading at the finish with only seven wins and four draws.

Getting through its 18 fixtures with only one loss, I.C.I. had a refreshing season after their second-last showing last year.

The Camera CAN Lie

This may look like a scene from the Stadium on Saturday night — but it isn't. Waitzer, of Brighton (right), and the Moreland player — we think it is Goodman — are still in the air after contesting a corner kick, which Waitzer has just successfully headed clear.

TOP PLAYERS STRIKE IT RICH IN ITALY

OUTSTANDING British players are receiving handsome signing-on fees and lucrative playing terms from top League clubs in Italy, where soccer is booming.

Two years ago, Genoa Sampdoria paid Charlton a £35,000 transfer fee for Eddie Firmani, the former South African forward. In addition, Firmani received £5000 for his signature to a two-year contract.

Firmani has just signed on again for another two years, this time getting £9000 for his signature!

In addition, he receives a salary of £17 per week, but bonuses make his earnings fabulous. He gets £42 for each away win, and £24 for each home win; £21 for an away draw, and £12 for a home draw. Large bonuses also go to the players of teams finishing in the first three.

Juventus paid Leeds £65,000 for John Charles, who got £10,000 for his signature. Lanerossin di Vincenza has offered Spurs £35,000 for Tony Marchi, who will get £7000 when the deal is finalised.

Big contract fees are offered to good managers, too. Alec Stock received £10,000 to manage Roma, and Bill Dodgin is understood to be doing pretty well for himself as the new manager of Sampdoria.

Naturally, all this big-money atmosphere is only allied to successful teams and players.

"An Italian team must keep on winning, and the players must maintain top form to make a good living," says Firmani. "You find things tough if you strike a bad patch without bonuses, because the cost of living is so high. But Italy certainly pays for success."

Top League soccer in Italy is tough, too.

"Charles and Marchi will find two men marking them when they start," says Firmani, "and they must be prepared for some rough treatment."

BREVITIES...

MR. Stuart Beaton, in his capacity as Chairman of the Fixtures Committee, expressed grave doubts this week about the possibility of putting the 12-club Leagues suggestion into actual practice. He pointed out that, legally, the use of parkland pitches for football was limited under the Bailey Award to the period April 1 to September 1, precluding the required 22 home-and-away games unless some drastic changes in Cup competitions were made. He will study the matter further, and will offer his findings to the Committee of General Enquiry.

Most games were affected by hail last Saturday, and one player in particular found it tough — Pascoe Vale's goalkeeper, who faced Melbourne. For him it hailed soccer balls.

End-of-season social activities are in full swing. Next Friday night, Sunshine City will make merry from 8 p.m. to 1.30 a.m. at the Sunshine Town Hall. It's a Cabaret Ball with entertainment by TV artists and others, and includes a Belle of the Ball contest. Ring MM 2331 for further details.

Complimentary remarks were still being made after the Polonia-J.U.S.T. match last week about Bob Wemyss' 30-yard first-timer that nearly tore the back out of the net.

George Cross is jubilant about the handsome way their teams won the double — the Second Division and the Reserves premierships.

Slavia's Cabaret Ball at the Empire Ballroom next Saturday night will have several distinguished visitors. Senator J. G. Gorton, President of the Foreign Affairs Committee, and Mrs. Gorton; Mr. G. O. Reid, M.L.A., Minister for Electrical Undertakings, and Mrs. Reid; and Mrs. M. V. Austin, O.B.E., J.P., President of Australian Red Cross. The Empire is at 386 Chapel Street.

The Technical Schools representative side produced a shocker by trouncing the High Schools 4-1 to win the Dunkling Shield. Team-work of the Tech. players was excellent, and spearheading by centre-forward Schultz, of Moorabbin, an eye-opener.

Local German newspaper, "Neue Welt" (New World), has put up a Cup for a short, post-season, three-week series to be played for at St. Albans Soccer Ground. Third Division or Metropolitan League clubs interested may contact Mr. F. Schwab, at 13 Erington Road, St. Albans.
